churches: "The Third-Street African Methodist Episcopal church is undergoing repairs. Mr. Derrick, the pastor, has been successful in raising something like seven thousand dollars, which sum is to be u-ed in putting a gothic front to the edifice and changing things inside in general. During the time that these alterations are being made the congregation will worship at Odd-Fellows' Hall, on Franklin street near the Exchange Ho-

"Rev. Mr. Holmes, of the First African Baptist church—the largest membership congregation in the United States-contemplates an entire new building. This congregation. if they undertake it, will no doubt erect the finest church that is under the control of colored people in the country. They are very wealthy and exceedingly liberal. This house, though of the colored people, was used by the rebel government during the war as a tabernacle, and from time to time, when the people of the South were wont to get disheartened, Mr. Jefferson Davis would have a big monster mass-meeting called at the old African church, as such gentlemen as General Bob. Toombs, Senator Wigfall, Mr. Benjamin, Mr. Yancey, and others, who understood how to fire the southern heart, would hold forth there. Messrs. Toombs, Stephens, and Benjamin made their last speech under the reign of Jefferson Davis in this church. The trustees of this church have some small-sized bills now that are remaining due from the late Confederate government, and will be glad for any information that will insure a speedy settlement. "The Ebenezer Baptist church has a large, flourishing, and solid congregation. The pastor of the church, Rev. Richard Wells, is one of the most intelligent of the colored men of Virginia, and is exceedingly popular in this city. He is a young man of rare ability, both practical and acquired. He was born in Richmond a slave, and is familiar with all the trials and hardships of the institution. He is a shining example of what can be accomplished by hard, earnest, and persistent study and an upright, religious course. He enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people of this city, from the highest to the most humble citizen. "The Second Baptist church, over which Mr. William Troy presides, is a growing church. Mr. Troy, the pastor, is a wellknown man in the country. He has a large membership, and a new edifice just about being completed; a very intelligent congregation, and, as with all the other colored churches, there are several charitable benevolent associations attached to it. They care for the unfortunate, sick, poor, and belpless of the flock, and this is the reason that there is so little if any real starvation and bodily suffering among the 'lower millions' of the vast population of Richmond. "There are but few colored Catholics, Episcopalians, or Presbyterians in Richmond-the city is Baptist almost solid. Mr. Derrick's is the only Methodist church, 1 want to write something about Mr. John Jasper's church, as both church and pastor require something more than a passing notice, but will defer a brief notice until my next letter.

"The colored Sunday schools of this city are doing a great work among the little lambs of the flock. I attended a general meeting of all the Sabbath schools at the old church on Broad street a few Sundays ago. The reports were encouraging. I heard a very interesting address delivered by W. P. Brooks, E-q., of Howard University, on the life and services of Mr. Brown, deceased, late superintendent of the old African Sunday school. I think Mr. Brown's place is being filled by Mr. Bowser, a young gentleman of acknowledged ability and high character." AN ALLEGED MAIL-ROBBER DISCHARGED .-Yesterday morning Jack Jee (colored), was examined before United States Commissioner Atkins, upon the charge of having stolen from the United States mail a check for $18.07, belonging to John L. Jones, of Charlie Hope post-office, Greenville county, on or about the 15th of June, 1873, while the prisoner was employed as a mail carrier on the route from Hicksford to Charlie Hope. Isedore Reinach, of Petersburg, heretofcre testified that the accused brought the check to-day. During that time thirty-four offento his store, and that he (Reinach) endorsed ders have been convicted and six acquitted. on it John L. Jones, his mark. There was, however, no evidence that the letter enclosing the check was ever mailed, though it was Gallagher was tried in the Hustings Court enclosed in a letter and directed. The accused, in addition, successfully proved an found him guilty, fined him $50, and sent alibi and was therefore honorably discharged, him to jail for six months.
